TELEVISED SIGN LANGUAGE CLASSES

An introductory course in sign language will be shown by five NBC television stations around the country during the next several months. As a part of the NBC-TV program series, "Knowledge," the classes will be broadcast in the Washington area over WRC-TV from April 7-18 at 6:28 a.m.

The classes will be taught by Lily Corbett and Martin Sternberg. Developed by the Deafness Research and Training Center, the classes will demonstrate a basic sign language vocabulary of about 400 signs through ten half-hour programs.

BATTLE OF THE BULGE? IS THAT YOU?

If so, here is your chance to learn how to win the war. Dr. Elliot Jaffa would like to offer a course on applying behavior modification techniques to control eating.

The course is made up of three one hour sessions at a cost of $25 per person. If 15 people are interested, the Center for Continuing Education will make the necessary arrangements and provide an interpreter. Please tell Leon LeBuffe of your interest.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

This semester the Placement Center is planning a series of workshops on career development for Gallaudet students. To be held weekly, a new topic will be discussed at a Wednesday and Thursday session. The series will be held in the conference room of the Student Union Building.

The schedule for the first two weeks will be:

February 12 7-8 p.m.

February 13 4-5 p.m.

Topic: Your Major, Your Career and Your Job.

February 19 7-8 p.m.

February 20 4-5 p.m.

Topic: Applying for a Job, How to Sell Yourself.

Gallaudet faculty and staff are urged to participate. Please contact Marilyn Galloway if you have questions or suggestions.

AROUND AND ABOUT

--The Potomac Chapter of the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf will meet on February 16, at 2 p.m. in the Calvary Lutheran Church at Georgia Avenue and the Beltway in Silver Spring.
